Stitch Fix Resumes Share Repurchase Program

SAN FRANCISCO, April 1, 2026 (BUSINESSWIRE) -- Stitch Fix, Inc. (NASDAQ: SFIX) (the "Company"), the leading online personal styling service, today announced that it has resumed repurchases under its existing share repurchase program.

The share repurchase program was previously authorized by the Company's Board of Directors in January 2022, and enables the Company to repurchase up to $150 million of its Class A common stock from time to time through open market repurchases, privately negotiated transactions, or other means, including pursuant to Rule 10b5-1 trading plans. The actual timing, number and value of shares repurchased in the future will be determined by the Company in its discretion and will depend on a number of factors, including price, trading volume, market conditions, and other general business conditions. The share repurchase program has no expiration date and may be modified, suspended, or terminated at any time.

Between March 17, 2026 and April 1, 2026, the Company repurchased approximately 4.5 million shares of its Class A common stock for an aggregate purchase price of $15 million. Following these repurchases, approximately $105 million remains available under the existing share repurchase program. The Company intends to report information about future repurchases, if any, in its quarterly and annual reports.
